STORY

The curious kick

As the Dutch traded spices the world over, they discovered that ginger was the secret zing that gave food in the far East its curious kick. This aromatic and curious blend fuses the exotic notes of ginger, kaffir lime, cardamom and Darjeeling tea into a spicy yet refreshing blend that came tame the heat of the hottest of days.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Light fish seasoned with citrus like crab or shrimps. A simple fried fish & chips. Chicken or veggie curry to match the subtle ginger flavour.
